

Anil Gupta

MD, FRCPC

Staff Cardiologist, Trillium Health Partners

Lead, Undergraduate Cardiology Education, UTM

Cardiology Lead, Cardiac Diagnostics and Cardiac Rehabilitation

Lecturer, University of Toronto

Investigator, Institute for Better Health, Trillium Health Partners

Research Director, One Heart Care Ventures

Toronto, ON

Staff Cardiologist at the Trillium Health Partners. Currently the Physician Lead for Cardiac Rehabilitation and Diagnostic Services and Undergraduate Lead for cardiology at the University of Toronto, Mississauga Academy. He is a Council Member of the Canadian Cardiovascular Society and vice chair of the continuing professional development program.

He has been the Medical Director of the Coronary Care Unit and Clinical Cardiology for the Trillium Health Partners and the Innovation Lead for the Cardiac Program and the Founder and Co-Chair of the Smoking Cessation Program at Trillium.

He is the Past President of the Trillium Health Centre Medical Staff Association and served on the Trillium Health Centre Board of Directors.

He is a Lecturer at the University of Toronto and an active member of the teaching staff for the Mississauga Academy of Medicine, Faculty of Medicine, University of Toronto.

He currently serves on Telefilm Canada's Talent Fund and is a cardiology consultant to Basketball Canada. He is currently working with Tennis Canada as a Medical Officer for the National Bank Open, National Wheelchair and Junior tournaments.

He served on the Canadian Hypertension Society Guidelines Implementation Committee (CHEP). He was a panelist for the CCS Fitness to Drive/Fly Consensus Document, CCS Peripheral Artery Disease Consensus Document and the CCS Antiplatelet Therapy Consensus Document.