

Shanelle Smith

BScN, MN, NP, CDE

Shanelle completed her undergraduate degree in nursing at Western University in London Ontario in 2007 and completed her Masters of Nursing in Acute Care Adult population from the University of Toronto in 2012. She started her nursing career at Southlake Regional Health Centre as a cardiology nurse and since then has held positions as a clinical instructor with Seneca College, a NP in lung transplant at Toronto General Hospital and most recently as a cardiac nurse practitioner with the Libin Heart Institute in Calgary Alberta.